

K-LOVE is the only broadcaster in the area that transmits such uplifting music, Christian Contemporary music, 24 hours a day. The other station devotes much airtime to preaching, various shows - not enough to simply music.

If you take them off the air where will people find such music?

Such uplifting, positive music must surely be in the public interest in contrast to other formats/stations which spread negative, anti-government, anti-authority messages.